

Winchester Outpouring Evening of Worship & Prayer Service

April 10, 2010

Delivered by: Pastor Wanda Alger

“You are seeking My presence and that is good and pleasing. I love to bring My presence but even more, to meet with you face to face and heart to heart. You will find me when you open your heart and get real with me. My anointing is not found in re-living previous glories or worshipping in comfortable places.

To come deeper into my heart, I ask you to take a step out of your comfort zone and reveal all your heart; not just the good and acceptable - not just the parts that look good to others for it's only when you open all of your heart - the good, the bad, the imperfect, that we can truly meet heart to heart.

My anointing flows most freely through those who dare to be vulnerable, honest and real. No need to perform - just come as you are.

For this region to experience an outpouring of my anointing, you must get real together. Pray for a corporate realness and openness to my Spirit.

There is safety in my love to get real. It doesn't have to be “pretty,” “impressive,” or “popular.” I just want a family who knows how to be open before Me.”
